

Natalia Bronshtein

Data analyst, researcher, consultant, university professor, Ph.D. in economics, and Fulbright alumna

Interactive version of this resume / personal web-site
(All logos in this document are clickable)

LinkedIn Tel.: 781-330-0633 E-mail: bronshteinn@gmail.com

Featured in:

Summary

13 years of research, data visualization, and management experience in academia, media and in a top-tier consulting company;
1 year as an interactives editor;
5 years as a postdoctoral researcher and Ph.D. student;
4 years as an EECA consultant, acting as both a project manager and a researcher;
12 years as a university professor, including 5 years as the chair of a university department.

2016	08/2015 – present	Interactives	at STAT,	LLC.	I create data visualizations and data-driven stories for Stat, helping to turn complex information into visualizations that tease out hidden patterns and connections.
2015	07/2013 – 08/2015	Professor			Faculty member working remotely on developing online and distance learning courses for the university.
2014	04/ 2011 - 04/ 2015	EECA	or		Project manager and researcher responsible for the management of bespoke consulting projects that included quantitative and qualitative analytics, data visualizations, and presentations. Conducted market research and policy analysis that helped multinational blue chip FMCG companies and international agencies expand their presence in Eastern Europe and Central Asia.
2013	07/ 2009 – 11/ 2010	Fulbright	doc		Analyzed significant national, regional, and global economic trends to assess the growth prospects of emerging post-Soviet economies. Constructed a framework for translating the best Western business practices and policies to the realities of emerging markets, which have only recently begun to integrate into the global economy.
2012	07/ 2008 – 07/ 2013	Chair
2011		Institute			Numerous administrative responsibilities in addition to research and teaching duties: set the agenda for the department while collaborating with other departments; created and maintained budgeting and operations databases related to ongoing university programs; monitored all department activities; communicated with the general public, government officials, and other universities.
2010	01/ 2007 – 07/ 2008	Associate
2009					Taught courses and conducted research on various economic topics, including economies of scale, synergy, optimal structure, and scale of enterprises; wrote research papers and reports, and created data visualizations. Teaching: taught courses in international economics, macroeconomics, and organization theory; mentored students; applied a wide range of pedagogical tools from traditional lectures to Internet-based technologies; developed course materials and visualizations that were used by other instructors.
2008	01/ 2006 – 01/ 2007	Senior
2007					Taught courses in international economics and macroeconomics.
2006	09/ 2003 – 01/ 2006	Lecturer
2005					Taught courses in international economics and macroeconomics; designed educational materials including visualizations.
2004
2003
2002
		Education
	2002	MA in International Economics (summa cum laude)
	2005	Ph.D. in Economics from Higher Attestation Commission of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation
	2008	MA in Education (summa cum laude)
		14 publications including 2 books (monographs)			